Safer? Yes! According to the Federal Highway Administration, the upgrades established with our quiet zone will increase the safety of the railroad crossings by as much as an estimated 82 percent. For more information on Quiet Zones: <http://www.stopthetrainhorns.com/faq/>

Our Quiet Zone has gone into effect. The establishment of a quiet zone does not guarantee that the train horn will never be sounded. More information about our quiet zone can be found on our website.

ACCESSORY BUILDING ORDINANCE

The Sergeant Bluff City Council recently passed Ordinance 683 that changes the zoning rules pertaining to new accessory buildings and detached garages. If you plan on building, please contact the Building Inspector for more details prior to submitting your permit application.
